Health check requirements

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/arrange-your-health-examinations>

Health insurance requirements

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) is a compulsory requirement for obtaining an Australian student visa. For further information including current pricing, see <http://www.anu.edu.au/students/scholarships-fees/fees-payments/overseas-student-health-cover-duration-costs>

Visa requirements

Students must hold a current visa which entitles them to study for the duration of their program. Typically this is a subclass 500 student visa. For further information, see <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing/student-500>. Students should apply for a student visa as soon as they receive their electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCOE) to avoid delays. All visas are subject to conditions and students must ensure they comply with the conditions of their visa at all times.

Living expenses

The estimated average cost of living in Canberra is AU$501-$784 per week (dependent on residence and room type). This typically covers accommodation, food, utilities and entertainment. For further information and detailed breakdown on expenses, please see <http://www.anu.edu.au/students/scholarships-fees/fees-payments/cost-of-living>

ANIP program

Experience the heart of Australian policy-making and politics through a research project with the Australian National Internships Program. ANIP internships are open to current undergraduate and postgraduate students from all academic disciplines. ANIP is the only university program that offers Commonwealth Parliamentary Internships to students from across Australia. Interns are based in the offices of MPs and Senators and engage with a range of activities that shape national policy making. <https://anip.anu.edu.au/>

Our university

ANU courses are taught in small classes and state-of-the-art collaborative spaces that stimulate students to think differently. As ANU students, incoming exchange participants will have the support of our vibrant and talented community including access to academic, sporting, cultural and social activities, and access to comprehensive wellbeing support.
