UIBE OVERVIEW

University of International Business and Economics (UIBE), founded in 1951, is a national key university with expertise in disciplines such as economics, management science, science of law, and literature. UIBE is one of the "Project 211" universities, a governmental program that aims to transform select Chinese universities into high-quality 21st century academic institutions. In addition, UIBE participates in the "Double First-Class" Initiative, a governmental program which aims to ultimately build a number of world-class universities with state-of-the art disciplines by the end of 2050. Since its inception, UIBE has been steadfast in living up to its motto of "Erudition, Honesty, Endeavor and Perfection" through continual diligence and innovation. Overall, UIBE sustains its educational commitment to "cultivate high-end innovative talents with an international vision, a good knowledge of international rules, and leadership in global economic and trade activities".
