Academics at Loyola

Fall semester: Mid-August – Mid-December

Spring semester: Early January – Early May

This program is available to students from Loyola's partner institutions and ISEP. For more information, see the exchange/mobility coordinator at your home institution.

As an exchange student, you can take any undergraduate classes for which you have the prerequisites in any of our academic departments, including our New Orleans Studies Program. Check out Loyola's courses at apply.loyno.edu/majors-degrees-programs.

If you need further training in English, you can also get academic credit for one or two English classes through the Loyola Intensive English Pilot (LIEP) Program. Visit <https://cie.loyno.edu/loyola-intensive-english-program> to learn more.

Student Life at Loyola

Loyola's campus is ideal for students who want to live and eat on campus and be a part of a close-knit university community.

- Cultural Connections program: Meet Loyola students and explore the city
- International Student Association
- Any of 100+ other student organizations

Center for International Education

The staff of the Center for International Education (CIE) are here to help you adjust to Loyola, New Orleans, and the United States. We coordinate all university programs for international students and will work with you before, during, and after your exchange.

// New Orleans has so much to offer, culturally, historically, and socially. The nightlife is really fun, and the music is next level. Amazing Jazz! Everyone here has a 'can-do' attitude so I'm always doing something.
