Enthusiasm, initiative and dynamism have always pushed me forward in my work as well as in my studies. What I try to do is to set goals to be achieved, once I do it, I always look for something that allows me to grow and improve personally and professionally. Problem-solving oriented professional, working group capacity. Flexible, reliable, dynamic and receptive to change, I adapt easily to new environments and work situations and therefore I am interested and fascinated by possible transfers both in Italy and abroad.
