

5. Graduating students must immediately inform their thesis supervising faculty and Student Services if for any reason they are not able to attend the final test/assessment session for which they applied, and in which case a new application for graduation must be submitted.